We invite you to become a member of the Friends of the APP and play an active role in helping us present extraordinary artists, foster innovative programs and provide our community with a welcoming place to gather. Ticket sales cover only a fraction of the cost of operating this wonderful home for the arts. Your generous support as a member helps make the Appalachian Theatre a thriving and lively cultural center. As the only independent, nonprofit performing arts center in the region, the Appalachian Theatre is becoming a distinctive tourist destination and economic driver for the High Country.
